Do you offer this course by distance education or online?

Yes, this course is offered by distance education and by online e-learning, in addition to workshop mode. The difference between online and distance is only that with study by distance education we express mail the course material to you printed in a ring folder. Many of our students appreciate having this format for their learning comfort. Study either by distance education or online means you are able to start the course at any time. After completing the enrolment process, distance learning students will receive the printed self-study manual that contains all of the resources needed to finish the course via distance education. Online e-learning students will access the course via the link we provide by email to our online e-learning platform. Online students do not receive a hard copy of the training material. Both online and distance education study will access assessments online.

When can I start the course?

Commencement via distance education or online e-learning can commence at any time. Simply complete the website enrolment process or the enrolment form pdf to begin. Online e-learning logins will typically be forwarded within 1 business day. Distance learning students will receive their material by express post within two to four business days.

If choosing to study through a workshop, dates are updated regularly and are available on our website under Course Schedules. Workshops are generally held monthly in major cities. Groups of 4 or more can often be accommodated outside of scheduled dates, in either metropolitan or regional areas, to suit specific group requirements, either on site or in pre-arranged venues.

NFI requires a minimum of 4 students registered to conduct any workshops.

Whom has this course been developed for?

- (1) People outside or new to the industry who are considering entering the mortgage/lending industry; or
- (2) People seeking to find employment or advance their employment status with a mortgage broker, mortgage manager, bank, credit union, building society or similar; or
- (3) People currently working for, or as, a mortgage broker or similar who are looking to formalise their skills and to obtain a credit licence through ASIC under the NCCP; or
- (4) People already working for a mortgage manager, bank, credit union, building society or similar and who are seeking to formalise or advance their skills.

What career opportunities will it provide on completion?

You may seek employment (including self-employment, contract work or as a franchisee) in finance broking or mortgage broking. It may also lead to employment in lending departments within a bank, building society, credit union or mortgage manager firm. Mortgage broker training and/or finance broker training may open the door to a variety of career options.

Can I apply for Recognition of my Prior Learning (RPL)?

Yes, for those who have relevant experience or who have completed other training, recognition of prior learning (RPL) is available. The fee for RPL applications for the Certificate IV qualification is $595. An application form and further information is available on the NFI website under Forms or you can request RPL information be emailed, should you wish to apply. The process takes approx. 2 weeks.

How long will this course take to complete?

The face-to-face workshop is delivered in 3 days and after the workshop is complete you will have the course manual to keep so that you can then review all of the content in your own time. You will then have assessments (6 tasks) to complete, after the workshop has finished, in your own time. Whether you attend a workshop or study by online or distance learning, you have 6 months to complete the course. As you work through the course assessments at your own pace, you may finish the course more quickly.

How much does the course cost?

Workshop mode - $1,295 per student

Distance education mode - $895 per student

Online e-learning mode - $695 per student

RPL (for applicants with prior experience only) - $595 per student

These costs are fully inclusive of course material, assessment and Certificate delivery. There is no GST component.

Discounts may be available for group bookings. A pay-by-the-month option exists for an additional $40 fee (form on our website under Forms).

Are any subsidies available to assist with payment?

The Australian Government provides a range of incentives to employers for employing an apprentice or trainee. Australian Apprenticeships (the term given to apprenticeships and traineeships) are available in over 600 different occupations, some part-time and some full-time (including some for mature age workers). The training can be flexible and can be delivered either on-the-job (at work), off-the-job (at a college/campus), or a combination of both. It is recommended that employers make enquiries to determine whether they would be eligible for assistance. The Certificate IV course has also been approved by Centrelink for the payment of Youth Allowance, Austudy Payment and Pensioner Education. Contact Centrelink directly to enquire into eligibility.

Where are the workshop training courses held?

Our Sydney venue is in North Sydney (close to the North Sydney train station) and our Melbourne venue is in Melbourne CBD. Our Brisbane venue is in Boondall. We typically hold workshops once per month in each major city. You will always be advised of the confirmed venue details prior to a workshop commencing.

When does the workshop training start and finish each day?

The workshops start at 9am each morning and finish at 4.45 to 5pm each afternoon. 8.45 a.m. is the preferred time for arrivals.

What should I wear to the workshop training?

Smart casual is recommended as a minimum dress standard by all students.

When will I receive confirmation that the workshop is proceeding?

To allow all courses the greatest opportunity to proceed, we may not confirm that the course is proceeding until the week prior to the scheduled course date. Sydney and Melbourne workshops are popular however so we recommend enrolling sooner rather than later.

What is the arrangement for lunch at the workshops?

Morning and afternoon teas are provided however trainees are responsible for organising their own lunch.

What happens if I enrol in a scheduled workshop, but then can't attend?

If for a reason outside of your control, you are unable to attend the course for which you had enrolled, we will endeavour to reschedule your attendance for another course. Alternatively, your enrolment can be converted to distance education mode or online e-learning, with your approval. Late cancellation fees apply as per our Terms and Conditions.

What assessments and what support is there for this course?

There are two assignments (case studies), four exercises and unit-specific multiple choice questions. All assessments are based on the practical application of learning concepts. The case studies in particular allow you to practise what a broker would do daily, by completing the loan paperwork necessary to lodge a loan application with a lender. Support is available either through our online forum, through email or through our 1300 support number.

How will I be notified of my results?

You will receive your results not more than three weeks after you have submitted all your assessments. If you are studying online, your results will be available via the e-learning platform. If you do not pass an assessment task, we will contact you by phone or email, providing feedback for you to attempt your resubmission.

What will I receive after I pass my assessments?

The course entitles the successful student to the nationally recognised FNS40815 Certificate IV in Finance and Mortgage Broking. A transcript of the competencies achieved and a summary of your assessment results will also be provided with the Certificate.

How do I apply and make payment?

You can complete the enrolment process directly through our website. Look for the green "Enrol Here" button then choose your preferred study mode. Online payment options available include eWay, PayPal or bank transfer. After you enrol you will receive confirmation that we have received your enrolment and any other details necessary. A pdf of the enrolment is also available if you are unable to access the website's online enrolment area (for example if you do not have internet access at the time).

Can I speak to someone about the course?

Yes, certainly. Please call us on 1300 765 400 – we'd be delighted to hear from you. Alternatively, you will find more information on our website at www.financeinstitute.com.au.
