Applicants for RPL must provide evidence that demonstrates competency in each unit of competency for the desired qualification.

- Is the applicant's knowledge and skill current?
- Has the applicant's CV and signee's CV been verified as true and correct?
- Is the evidence provided a) valid b) sufficient c) current and d) authentic
- Are the knowledge levels and skills held by the applicant appropriate to the level of competency for which the applicant is applying (ie. at a Diploma level)?

The NFI assessor will then make one of three decisions:

- ▶ Accept the application and grant recognition
- ▶ Request further information because the assessor was unable to make a decision on the evidence provided
- ▶ Deny the application and recommend that further assessment or training is undertaken to achieve one or more units of competence. The applicant will then be advised which subjects or assessments, if any, are required to be completed. If full RPL is not approved, any fee already paid for the RPL application may go towards the study of the qualification for which the applicant was seeking RPL. Following advice of the outcome, the $595 fee payable for the RPL review is non-refundable if the applicant determines that they no longer wish to pursue the qualification. Individual units of study online are $209 per unit. Maximum fee for RPL plus study is capped at $1545.

What Will I Receive

The assessment decision will be made within 1 to 2 weeks of submission. Documentation received by NFI will not be returned to the applicant as it is required to be retained for DET audit purposes. If the applicant is granted RPL for their chosen qualification they will receive by mail an original certificate and the transcript of competencies that form the qualification along with a tax invoice/receipt for payment. For some applicants the RPL assessor will make the determination that some units qualify under RPL and other units may require study. If study of a unit is to be undertaken the fee is $209 for online study or $249 for online study with a hard copy provided. There is no GST charged when a unit is studied.
