Professional Development Session

Secrets to Recruiting and Inducting Mortgage Professionals

The National Finance Institute

This professional development session must be combined with others to create a customised half-day session.

What does the course cover?

How many times have you heard the phrase “it’s hard to get good help”? The rapid increase in consumer demand for mortgages in recent years has created a shortage of competent mortgage professionals to write the loans.

The successful recruitment and induction of mortgage writers may be an area of competitive advantage for your business. This 3 hour session will take you through the chain of events that leads to recruiting and retaining excellent mortgage professionals.

If your mortgage business is expanding rapidly and you want to hire the right people then this session is a must.

- Discover ‘secret tips’ that professional recruiters use when interviewing mortgage professionals
- Identify the key attributes you should be seeking in a mortgage professional
- How to deliver an effective induction program for new staff
- How to source new mortgage professionals cost-effectively.

Are there any CPD points available for this session?

This session has been designed to contribute toward the Mortgage Industry Association of Australia’s (MIAA) continuing professional development (CPD) requirements. The CPD points allocated, for each session may vary according to the level of technical knowledge involved. As an indication, mortgage industry related educational workshops are allocated 3 points per day or 1.5 points per session.

However, these courses shouldn’t be considered a ‘point accumulation exercise’, but rather a means to create a competitive edge over your rivals.

What happens if I attend, but don’t gain any benefit?

If you attend an NFI professional development course and for any reason it does not prove to be an experience that can help you establish, or greatly improve, your career as a mortgage professional, you will receive a 100% refund upon request at the completion of the course. We make this guarantee because we believe 100% in the results our courses deliver.
