Professional Development Session

How to Establish Profitable Strategic Alliances

The National Finance Institute

This professional development session must be combined with others to create a customised half-day session.

What does the course cover?

Have you ever wondered how to approach potential strategic alliances, without feeling like you are begging for loans? This two hour session will teach you a step-by-step process for successfully establishing strategic alliances with third party referrers, such as real estate agents, accountants and financial planners.

The contents of this session have been described as “amazing” “revolutionary” and “brilliant” by mortgage professionals around Australia. Knowledge is power; and the teachings of this session will give you the power to develop more profitable strategic alliances than you ever thought possible.

- Discover a fool-proof method for establishing strategic alliances that will delight you
- Recognise the potential sources for strategic alliances as a mortgage professional
- Learn a technique for changing your mindset to become a powerful source of value to referrers
- How to train your strategic alliances to refer more prospects.

Are there any CPD points available for this session?

This session has been designed to contribute toward the Mortgage Industry Association of Australia’s (MIAA) continuing professional development (CPD) requirements. The CPD points allocated, for each session may vary according to the level of technical knowledge involved. As an indication, mortgage industry related educational workshops are allocated 3 points per day or 1.5 points per session. However, these courses shouldn’t be considered a ‘point accumulation exercise’, but rather a means to create a competitive edge over your rivals.

What happens if I attend, but don’t gain any benefit?

If you attend an NFI professional development course and for any reason it does not prove to be an experience that can help you establish, or greatly improve, your career as a mortgage professional, you will receive a 100% refund upon request at the completion of the course. We make this guarantee because we believe 100% in the results our courses deliver.

Who has this session been developed for?

This session has been developed for new and experienced mortgage brokers. It is also particularly relevant to managers and support staff of aggregation, franchise and other large mortgage companies.

How long will this course take to complete?

This session is two hours duration. It is to be combined with other available sessions to make a half-day training course.

When are the courses scheduled?

Courses can be conducted to suit your schedule. We can arrange a venue or it can be held at your training room. We require 20 participants to conduct a course.

What materials/equipment do I need?

A workbook is supplied at the commencement of the course. You only need to bring a pen.

How much does a professional development course cost?

Prices range from $115 to $225 per person.

What will I receive?

You will receive a course workbook and Certificate of Attendance.

When does the course start and finish each day?

Courses generally start at either 9am or 1pm, depending on the time constraints of the group.

What should I wear to the training and what is the arrangement for lunch?

Smart casual is expected as a minimum dress standard by all students. You are responsible for organising your own lunch unless notified otherwise.
